

REGISTRATION GUIDELINE OF MINI ESSAY COMPETITION

The 15thEconomix: Global Economic Challenges Mini Essay's theme for this year is The Resurgence of Neo-Protectionism: A Changing World. Participants' ideas and knowledge will heavily be observed concerning the world's ability in maintaining its economic performances in the moment of not only incessant global economic problems, but also many fundamental obstacles which have internally occurred in every country over the world. This international competition can be participated by all undergraduate students from universities all over the world who are having a huge interest in economics and having an interest in taking a part in the essay competition. Participants of the essay competition are single individuals, with no minimum threshold for a university to send their teams to the competition. The participants have to register online by filling in the Registration Form which can be obtained at www.economix-febui.com. The completed Registration Form, together with the essay, must be submitted to the committee not later than the August 13th, 2017. The essay will be assessed by the judges who are experts in their fields, which consist of national and international academicians, economists, lecturers and practitioners. One best essay from each region will be announced as regional winner, and the one best essay will also be selected to receive the prize.
